

Protective Services Program

Helping older adults and families manage conflict and find resolution.

Protective Services Program provides services to older adults, age 60 or over, who may be at risk of physical or emotional abuse, neglect or those at-risk due to self-neglect or financial exploitation.

Skilled and experienced Protective Service Case Workers work with individuals to investigate abuse, neglect and self neglect issues and develop service plans to educate, empower and alleviate requested concerns. Reports of any type of alleged abuse are kept confidential.

MANDATED REPORTERS ARE

Health Care Providers, Mental Health, Social Service Professionals, Police Officers, Fire Fighters, and other professionals.

TYPES OF ABUSE

- Physical - Non-accidental infliction or threat of force resulting in injury.
- Neglect - Failure by a caregiver to provide essentials, which result in harm.
- Emotional - Willful infliction of mental or emotional anguish.
- Financial Exploitation - Unauthorized use of funds or resources.
- Sexual Abuse - Non consensual sexual contact of any kind.

- Self-Neglect - Failure by an individual to meet their basic needs for food clothing, shelter, personal and medical care.

INTERVENTION

- Assessment - Investigation of abuse or neglect and self neglect.
- Casework - Access home care, health, legal, mental health or social services for older adults.
- Emergency Care - Referral to local shelters, food and help with medical care, if eligible.
- Referrals to services to reduce risk and promote safety.

PREVENTION AWARENESS

Provide education and training for mandated reporters, social services agencies, Councils on Aging, safety officials, and community/ civic groups about elder abuse and neglect issues.

REPORT

To make a report call the Elder Abuse Hotline, open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at 1-800-922-2275.